

We urge you to retain the current ownership rules for media. The airwaves belong to the people of the United States, and the media should serve the people and not private interests. There should NOT be more consolidation of media ownership. On June 2, 2003, keep the current rules.